Sai Baba, My Self

World Religions and Educational Practice

A retelling of the Bhagavatapurāna, legend about Krishna, Hindu deity; translated from Telugu.

Dialogues with the Angels

On Sathya Sai Baba, b. 1926, Hindu saint from Andhra Pradesh.

Woven on the Loom of Time

"Spotlight on the Sai story is Sai Baba's life and philosophy retold in new light in historical chronology and spiritual potency with aroma and lustre of avataric grace. Like a love-thirsty bird, the author sings of the enchanting glory of the divine incarnation that is Sai Baba. With each page that is turned, the book makes the reader feel as if he is face to face with Baba, interacting with him, and experiencing his love and grace. This book is based on Ajgaonkar's Shri Sai Geetayan (in Marathi). A unique blend of prose and poetry, literary skills and devotional fineness, beauty and joy, Spotlight on the Sai story is one of the best amongst all of Chakor Ajgaonkar's works. One would not be wrong to say that this book is at par with Hemadpant's immortal Sai Satcharita, venerated and read by millions of Sai devotees throughout the world.

Dhyana Vahini

Baba is Here is an extraordinary example of Sai Baba's omnipresence. The author shows us that the Lord is accessible to anyone who asks Him for guidance, and He lovingly answers every question. This book gives a first hand account of Graciela Busto's conversations with the Lord. These inner dialogues deal with the underlying nature of the universe and man's relationship to God. They explore the period prior to creation and consciousness, providing detailed information about the purpose of life itself. Gracila Busto's narrative helps us to understand that we are all divine. Through these dialogues, the author explores the Very substance and intention of truth, love, and existence. We find here answers to questions such as: If God is omnipresent, why is it necessary to invoke Him? Is faith a necessary condition for realization? Is love indispensable in order to gain wisdom? Why doesn't God always respond to our prayers? How can you tell when someone has reached enlightenment? Why have we forgotten our origin? Other topics are discussed such as, free will, pride, greed, surrender, lust, and forgiveness.

THE STORY OF JESUS: AN INTUITIVE ANTHOLOGY

Many contemporary Christians suspect that there is more to Jesus and his enduring message than the little that has survived in historical writings and the legendary Christian tradition. This book offers a narrative account of Jesus' life from the perspective of twenty contemporary writers who have developed their natural intuitive abilities to an unusually high level. They are therefore able to bring forth new and detailed information not ordinarily accessible by historical or literary means. Some of them had demonstrated their unusual skill by probing deeply into the personal lives and minds of historical individuals other than Jesus, while some had provided important and detailed technical information which was then verified scientifically. They apply their intuitive skills here to uncover fresh information about the man Jesus, his contemporaries and his extensive teachings which never found their way into the New Testament Gospels and related historical documents. These new findings offer a much richer view of the man himself than that available from traditional Christian sources. They also provide illuminating insights and a deep spiritual understanding of Jesus' original and hidden teachings. The Story of Jesus is essential reading for all inquirers and seekers into these hidden and previously lost portions of Christian spiritual history.

Description: The frontiers of Traditional Knowledge and Science have long attracted the minds of scientists, theologians, intellectuals and students, who have been arguing both their similarities and dissimilarities, apparent contradictions, and the possibility of an ultimate harmony between the two. In ancient and medieval India - as in much of the Non-Western world - there was only one word for tradition and science, namely, vidya. Vidya encompassed what in the modern historically-sensitive inquiries is called 'knowledge-systems.' However, in the modern West, placing Science and Tradition side-by-side has become something of an anathema, for many in the post-Enlightenment era regard Tradition to be a leftover from the Dark Ages. Science, in contrast, with its systematic approach to studying and understanding of all there is, has been considered to be unassailable. But even this impenetrable divide may be showing signs of rupture in the twenty-first century : there is now growing evidence of a line of continuity and creative engagement in a 'third space' between Science and Traditional Knowledge. Individuals and learned organizations are making enormous contributions in this interactive exploration. The Sir John Templeton Foundation, based in Philadelphia, USA, is one such international organization. Professor B.V. Subbarayappa is one such eminent scholar who has relentlessly pursued, and in his quiet way stimulated, the fusion of disparate minds in this area. He is hailed as a pioneer in the History and Philosophy of Science movement in India. His contributions in this field are without match and have earned him a name among scientists, science historians, philosophers and intellectuals all over the world. His monumental work and his sheer humanity have inspired the Editors of this volume to find a way to honour him. Scholars of various persuasions from around the world have contributed exploratory, specialist and dialogic essays toward this conversation of Science and Tradition. A biographical sketch with a comprehensive Bibliography (first-ever) of Prof Subbarayappa is also featured in the Introductory essay. Professor--D.P. Chattopadhyaya and J.N. Mohanty have offered prefatory comments of their own. Given the extensive range of topics discussed, both specialists and lay readers will doubtless gain a deeper understanding of the relationship between Science and Tradition in a cross-cultural context, and hopefully be inspired to develop respect for knowledge across these two frontiers.

Shri Sai Satcharita

This book looks closely at the Malaysian following of the contemporary Indian godman, Sathya Sai Baba, a neo-Hindu guru famed for his miracle-working. The "911" attacks on the United States and subsequent "war on terrorism" have brought a discussion of transnational "religious" networks onto centre stage. While the Sai Baba movement has no militaristic ideology, it may - like any other such movement - ultimately call into question the sovereignty of the nation state. Today, then, issues of fa

Sri Sathya Sai Baba and the Future of Mankind

New Religious Movements in Western Europe

This unique book provides comprehensive profiles of the three great incarnations of Sai Baba Shirdi Sai Baba(1858-1918), Sathya Sai Baba (1926-2011) and the future Sri Prema Sai Baba whose advent in the present century has been prophesied. They carry the triple message of work, worship and wisdom. Shirdi Sai Baba laid the base for secular integration and gave the message of duty as work, Sathya Sai Babas mission was to make every one realize that the same God resides in everyone. The future Prema Sai Baba will promote the evangelic news that not only God resides in everyone but everyone is GOD. The special features of this book are: It presents research based new information on the first two Incarnations which will enable readers understand their lives, messages, miracles, and their status and unique roles as prophets --harbingers of the New Age Spirituality. It presents the thrilling future scenario of Prema Sai Babas divine life as revealed by Sathya Sai Baba to his closest devotee Vasantha Sai who has been assured that she would be his wife Prema when he incarnates as Raja who would later be known as Prema Sai Baba and the mother of their only son Rama. This book clears the prevailing confusion about Prema Sai Baba and gives a microscopic view of the New Age Spirituality.

Even Though The Writer Addresses Sai Baba, This Book Is Intended For Anyone In Search Of God. She Poses Questions And Answers We All Ask When We Set Out On The Spiritual Path. Actually She Addresses The Atma - Another Name For The Higher Self - That Resides In All Of Us. This Higher Self Can Manifest Itself On Earth In Human Form And As Such Has Been Given Different Names In The Various Cultures And Religions, Names As Rama, Krishna, Jesus, And Buddha And So On. However, We Always Deal With The Same Principle, Namely God Who Can Manifest In Different Forms But Who Ultimately Transcends Any Form And Is Worshipped As The Formless Principle Residing In All Of Us And Animating Everything From Within. If You Replace The Name Of Sai Baba For One That Represents Your Chosen Deity, You May Benefit Greatly By These Lessons Which Teach Us How, By Living Righteously And In Accordance With God S Will, We Can Be Happy In The Present, Critical Age. For Many Years Geesje Lunshof (Poet, Teacher, Writer) Wandered Through The World On A Spiritual Quest. Finally, In The Late Seventies, She Returned To Her Native Country, The Netherlands, Where Se Settled Down As An English Teacher. In 1980 She Heard Of Sai Baba For The First Time. Soon It Became Clear To Her The He Represented The End Of Her Search. In 1991, After Her Second Trip To Sai Baba In India, Sai Baba Started Answering Her Many Questions In An Inner Dialogue. This Took Place Through The Process Of Written Questions And Answers. As Many Of These Questions And Certainly All The Answers Are Of General Interest, It Gradually Became Clear To Her That She Must Not Keep The Dialogue To Herself, But Should Share It With Others.

The Story of Jesus

Traditions of Science

Bhagawan says that treading the spiritual path is like walking on a razor's edge. One has to be ever vigilant, train the mind to dwell on the Lord constantly. To quote Bhagawan, "Control the senses, which run helter-skelter; then, the origins of the disease will be destroyed. Let the mind keep a watch over its gymnastics; dam up the mad flood of thoughts and plans and schemes; then, there will be no room for worries and anxieties in the mind. To diminish the wanderings of your thoughts, repeat the name of the Lord; that will keep out your sorrows and troubles. Without the effacement of the mind, spiritual wisdom cannot dawn. The full person is one, who has succeeded in this." One should practise meditation assiduously, since it is the basis of all spiritual practice (Sadhana). Bhagawan says that one should fasten the mind on the Lord and keep off all other thoughts from the mental plane. That is the full fruition of meditation. For aspirants, who want to lead a God-centric life, careful reading of this Vahini will help them to reach the goal of life.

The Triple Incarnations of Sai Baba

Sri Siddheshwar Baba and Sai Kundalini Yoga

Translated from original Marathi by Indira Kher, this work is a verse composition containing the known facts about Shri Sai Baba's life at Shirdi, and also his teachings seeks to meet a long-felt need. This is the Bible of Sai devotees in every sense of the term, In it's veracity, sanctity, faith and devotion that it inspires and the deep satisfaction, a sense of fulfilment that it brings to the devotee, it has no equal. Its sanctity derives from the fact that its idea was conceived during Baba's lifetime and with his blessings and express permission. For those unaware of Shri Sai Satcharita it is necessary to add that in the original it runs into 53 chapters and contains over 9,000 verses. Every chapter has a judicious mixture of philosophy, stories and anecdotes along with the Baba's teachings.

The Vedas originated from the breath of God; each syllable is sacred. Each word is a mantra. It exhorts all men to pursue the same holy desire. All hearts must be charged with the same good urge. All thoughts must be directed by noble motives towards holy ends. All men must tread the one path of truth, for all are manifestations of the One. The world is enchanting, because it is tantalising in appearance, though it is fundamentally untrue. It is a phenomenon, which is fading out. When this truth is realised, one becomes aware of the Cosmic Sport of God and the Eternal Universal Being. Leela Kaivalya Vahini (originally published in the Sanathana Sarathi periodical) is a cool, crystal clear stream that flows from the Divine pen of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba to dissolve all obstacles, like doubts and dogmas, purposeless arguments, and flimsy fancies of the sadhaka (spiritual aspirant). We consider it be but yet another sign of His benign grace that these published in the periodicals could be given a book form and placed at the Lotus Feet, on the auspicious occasion of His 65th Birthday, which eventually falls on the 50th year of proclamation of Avatarhood. May this Vahini lead all seekers in the path of spiritual progress and fill us all with Ananda, the Bliss Absolute.

Baba is Here

Satsang with Baba: August 5, 1971 to December 31, 1971

The Sathya Sai global civil religious movement incorporates Hindu and Muslim practices, Buddhist, Christian, and Zoroastrian influences, and "New Age"-style rituals and beliefs. Shri Sathya Sai Baba, its charismatic and controversial leader, attracts several million adherents from various national, ethnic, and religious backgrounds. In a dynamic account of the Sathya Sai movement's explosive growth, Winged Faith argues for a rethinking of globalization and the politics of identity in a religiously plural world. This study considers a new kind of cosmopolitanism located in an alternate understanding of difference and contestation. It considers how acts of "sacred spectating" and illusion, "moral stakeholding" and the problems of community are debated and experienced. A thrilling study of a transcultural and transurban phenomenon that questions narratives of self and being, circuits of sacred mobility, and the politics of affect, Winged Faith suggests new methods for discussing religion in a globalizing world and introduces readers to an easily critiqued yet not fully understood community.

Discourses on Hinduism, spiritualism, and selfrealization by a Hindu religious leader.

Leela Kaivalya Vahini

Sathya Sai Baba was born in 1926, and is a teacher of wisdom, a weaver of stories, metaphorical and allegorical, about the nature and destiny of humanity. He speaks of Atma, the eternal Spirit within, the Self, the breath of God that animates everyone: deathless, fadeless, ageless, infinite, indestructible, unbounded, unchanging, unlimited. Hard to describe a thing so vast and luminous, but it is really the Lamp of Love. Sathya Sai Baba is one of the most majestic spiritual teachers. His stories paint the inner beauty of the Self -- its delight, its allure, its Love -- and how that Self may be realized and lived fully, sublimely, abundantly.

Sai Baba Avatar

Dialogues with the Angels is one of those rare, enchanting 'bridge books' in the genre of Dan Millman's Way of the Peaceful Warrior, James Redfield's Celestine Prophecy and Richard Bach's Illusions. This extraordinary adventure tells the story of a young woman's awakening gifts of the Spirit in her spiritual search for truth. In its pages we enter the fascinating world of angels and masters, saints and fairies, learning techniques for lucid dreaming, soul travel and how to work with both Angels and Shamanic Spirit Helpers. With an authenticity that is both selfless and refreshingly honest, she manages to bridge the worlds between deep Christian mysticism, and the return of ancient wisdom, opening our eyes to an illuminated life. In a story that has us poised on the edge of our seats, she conveys the esoteric secrets of the universe with such accessible and human familiarity that we find ourselves laughing and crying, and hoping that the book will never end. A must read for anyone who has ever wanted to "walk between the worlds" or who is opening to their own spiritual awareness!

The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue. In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture; religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes. In this volume, scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation. While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non-Western contexts, this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States. It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue.
