A Commentary on the Doctrine and Covenants

If you have a hard time organizing your notes during scripture study, this journal will certainly help. Each page of this journal/notebook represents a different section in the Doctrine & Covenants and Pearl of Great Price. Whether you want to take notes at church during Gospel Doctrine Class or at home while you study Come Follow Me, you will be able to add notes to this journal specific to the section and verse you are studying. Use this journal to refer to previous notes, time after time, as you continually study Church History. We have created this journal in a full notebook size (8.5 by 11.0 inches) because we want to provide you plenty of room to take notes. Any smaller and we worry you might run out of space on some chapters. Book Details: 88 pages front and back Each page is for a different section in the Doctrine and Covenants and a different chapter in the Pearl of Great Price Each page is split to allow you to reference the verse on the left side of the page and make your notes and comments on the right side of the page Designed on strong sturdy paper to prevent bleed through when writing with pen Dimensions: 8.5 by 11.0 inches Additional blank pages in the back of the book for additional notes if necessary Having all your study notes in one place has never been easier. If you are studying the Book of Mormon sometime soon, be sure to find our Book of Mormon Study Journals on Amazon. How We Got the Doctrine and Covenants

This special edition of the Lectures on Faith from Zion's Camp Books is formatted for convenience on an eReader, with more than 100 internal links to scriptures and citations. We hope it will give you a great reading experience! The Lectures on Faith were originally prepared as materials for the School of the Prophets in Kirtland, Ohio in 1834 and were included in the Doctrine and Covenants from 1835 to 1921. Although the Lectures on Faith have never been accepted as revelation by the body of the church (and so were removed from the Doctrine and Covenants in 1921), they contain important doctrinal insights that can help anyone seeking to learn more about faith and come closer to Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ. President Joseph Fielding Smith noted, "I suppose that the rising generation knows little about the Lectures on Faith. . . . In my own judgment, these Lectures are of great value and should be studied. . . . I consider them to be of extreme value in the study of the gospel of Jesus Christ." (Joseph Fielding Smith, Seek Ye Earnestly. Salt Lake City: Deseret Book, 1970.) Elder Bruce R. McConkie of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles has stated the lectures contain "some of the best lesson material ever prepared on the Godhead; on the character, perfections, and attributes of God; on faith, miracles, and sacrifice. They can be studied with great profit by all gospel scholars." (Bruce R. McConkie, Mormon Doctrine. Salt Lake City: Bookcraft, 1966.)

Cultivate your love for the scriptures and deepen your knowledge with the help of a scripture study process compiled by James E. Faulconer. Rich scripture study is facilitated by tools and techniques that help us focus on what the scriptures can teach us. This study aid offers pointers and suggestions that will familiarize beginning students of the scriptures with the many resources available to them, as well as help more experienced students improve the overall effectiveness of their scripture study. In this fascinating book, James Faulconer discusses a helpful method and the purpose of outlining, an in-depth method of cross-referencing, how to ask cogent and thought-provoking questions about the scriptures, the benefits of using dictionaries and concordances, the relation between words and ideas apparent through rhetorical studies, and using the valuable reference tools in the LDS edition of the scriptures.

Joseph Smith's New Translation of the Bible

"What do the various covenants given throughout the Bible mean to us? Are they relevant to our lives? A rainbow now and then may remind us of God's promise to Noah and we've memorized the part about the new covenant in Jesus' blood at Communion--but do we dig any deeper? Do we need to?"--Publisher description.

What can latter-day revelation teach us about the vital doctrines of the restored gospel. How can knowing the history of the early days of the Restoration help us understand the future blessings promised to a worldwide Church? In this third volume of a comprehensive, four-volume series, authors Stephen E. Robinson and H. Dean Garrett draw from numerous sources to bring to life the history and doctrine of the Doctrine and Covenants in an easy-to-read format. Using original diaries, journals, maps, and atlases, they set a historical context that helps clarify what is being said in the scriptures. Understand latter-day scripture in a whole new light!

The Pearl of Greatest Price narrates the history of Mormonism's fourth volume of scripture, canonized in 1880. The authors track its predecessors, describe its several components, and assess their theological significance within the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Four principal sections are discussed, along with attendant controversies associated with each. The Book of Moses purports to be a Mosaic narrative missing from the biblical version of Genesis. Too little treated in the scholarship on Mormonism, these chapters, produced only months after the Book of Mormon was published, actually contain the theological nucleus of Latter-day Saint doctrines as well as a virtual template for the Restoration Joseph Smith was to effect. In The Pearl of Greatest Price, the author covers three principal parts that are the focus of many of the controversies engulfing Mormonism today. These parts are The Book of Abraham, The Book of Moses, and The Joseph Smith History. Most controversial of all is the Book of Abraham, a production that arose out of a group of papyri Smith acquired, along with four mummies, in 1835. Most of the papyri disappeared in the great Chicago Fire, but surviving fragments have been identified as Egyptian funerary documents. This has created one of the most serious challenges to Smith's prophetic claims the LDS church has faced. LDS scholars, however, have developed several frameworks for vindicating the inspiration of the resulting narrative and Smith's calling as a prophet. The author attempts to make sense of Smith's several, at times divergent, accounts of his First Vision, one of which is canonized as scripture. He also assesses the creedal nature of Smith's "Articles of Faith," in the context of his professed anti-creedalism. In sum, this study chronicles the volume's historical legacy and theological indispensability to the Latter-day Saint tradition, as well as the reasons for its resilience and future prospects in the face of daunting challenges.

SUB TITLE:A Guided Tour Through Modern Revelation

Scripture Study

"Search these commandments," the Lord himself said of the Doctrine and Covenants, "for they are true and faithful, and the prophecies and promises which are in them shall all be fulfilled." (D&C 1:37.) In Looking at the Doctrine and Covenants Again for the Very First Time, James W. McConkie II provides unique commentary on the most contemporary volume of scripture in the LDS canon. This study companion provides an insightful and faithful approach for all who desire to learn the restored gospel in the context of places and events in the history of the Church. Carefully researched and thoughtfully written, this comprehensive volume organizes resources, important concepts, and fundamental doctrines around sections and places where they were revealed, thus providing essential context to each of the sections in the Doctrine and Covenants. The book provides vital historical information and analysis, making it easier for students and teachers alike to understand the text as it was interpreted at the time it was received. It is a valuable resource for Gospel Doctrine teachers and students, a useful tool for anyone who visits Church history sites, and an indispensable help for parents who genuinely want to teach their children.

The Pearl of Greatest Price

What would you rather have-conventional success or a high level beyond success? Dan Clark, one of the world's leading inspirational speakers and leadership trainers, vehemently opposes the conventional wisdom about success. He believes it's tragic and superficial to build our careers and personal lives around getting more money, bigger houses, cooler toys, and fancier job titles. What's it all worth in the end? How many outwardly successful people still feel empty inside? Clark has spent decades traveling around the world, interviewing the famous and powerful; consulting with presidents and generals and sheikhs and corporate leaders; creating a multimillion-dollar business; and (before any of the above) overcoming a paralyzing injury

Ridges as he brings the Pearl of Great Price to life with this unique teacher in the hand. A Powerful Study Guide Quickly gain a basic understanding of the Pearl of Great Price with the help of brief notes within and between the verses. Example: Joseph Smith Matthew 24:22 and Jesus went out, and departed from the temple; and his disciples came to him, for to hear him, saying: Master, show us concerning the buildings of the temple, as thou hast said They shall be thrown down, and left unto you desolate [the disciples would like Him to give them more details about the coming destruction of the temple in Jerusalem]. The Savior's prophecy that the buildings of the temple would be torn down was fulfilled by about 70 to 73 AD as the Romans finally conquered the Jews and destroyed many of their cities. Transfer these brief notes into your own scriptures to increase your understanding now as well as in the future. A Quick Reference Quickly get help for specific verses or chapters.
